Heather R YOUNGER

Are you or your team struggling to bounce back after so much rapid change recently? Maybe you've been feeling disconnected at work, or been wondering how to get everyone you lead back on the same page.

No matter the challenges presented by this once-in-a-lifetime period of transition, there are also real opportunities. So says our speaker today, Heather R Younger - also known as "The Employee Whisperer."

Heather is the Founder & CEO of Employee Fanatix, a leading employee engagement and consulting firm, a highly sought-after keynote speaker, diversity, equity and inclusion strategist, and the world's leading expert on listening at work. She also happens to be a former attorney, but please don't hold that against her.

Drawing from her personal experiences as the only child of an interfaith and interracial marriage, Heather is committed to inspiring employees and leaders everywhere to flex their empathy muscles and master the art of active listening to ensure every employee feels valued, heard, and supported. Her presentations are dedicated to helping organizations create supportive cultures of care by improving how they listen to and communicate with employees.

Please join me in welcoming from Denver, Colorado, bestselling author and self-professed lover of warm chocolate chip cookies—Heather R Younger!
