Sample Speaker Topics

Relationships Are The Currency Of The Future

Every day we impact peoples lives whether it be our children, friends or people in the work place through our interactions. Living in a digital world, our relationships and communication have taken a back seat as we continue to get caught up in the busy hamster wheel of life.

Busting The Myth Of GBVH

Whether we want to admit it or not, domestic abuse happens on a daily basis in our homes, businesses and communities. The pandemic has seen both divorce and GBVH stats spike globally and we can no longer ignore this silent, and often violent killer. If there were no perpetrators, there would be no victims.

Navigating The Now Normal

Living in a digital and remote world means life has become more complex and uncertain but the greatest luxury item people are desperately searching for is uninterrupted, distraction and digital free time and better mental health and well-being.

Clients

"Inspiring, motivating and touching people's lives is my passion."

What clients have to say:

Working with Paula has been seamless. She is professional, always meets deadlines and is not only able to embrace new technology but is also willing to be hands-on and help where required. She has worked with me twice as a keynote speaker for the EAPASA EduWeb seminar series presenting on topics such as "Making sense of the Hybrid landscape" and "Busting the myth of Gender-based violence". She shares practical strategies and insights and the audiences have commended her on the value she has provided. I would definitely recommend her as a speaker for any event. - Nicole Enov8

Well done and thank you for an incredible topic and speaker for this morning. It was insightful and one to remember! - Michael, Norton Rose Fulbright.

Paula, thank you for being the speaker. I absolutely loved your talk and found it to be very interesting. The topic was fun and something we can all relate to - Chantelle, Hirschs

Thank you really enjoyed the session - No is a full sentence! I think as I move into my new role boundaries will be important and the ability to say no is more important than ever. I also need to say no to others and to say yes to myself, I have put others ahead of my needs and desires - Erin, RMB

Thank you Paula for the amazing session. you make everything easy to understand and easy for us to be able to tackle our issues - Lebohang, Afrikatikkun
