

CHRIS BASHINELLI – INTRO

Are you ready to embark on an international adventure and discover what it means to tap into the Power of True Human Connection!?

Chris Bashinelli, also known as, “Bash”, was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. After a decade long acting career including an appearance on the HBO hit television series- The Sopranos, Bash decided to follow his real passion. He now traverses the globe from Uganda to Haiti, as Host of Bridge the Gap on PBS and the National Geographic Channel.

Bash has shared the stage with Stevie Wonder and has spoken around the world, from multi-million dollar corporations, to Indonesia, to the United Nations General Assembly Hall.

He has harvested buffalo with Native Americans in Pine Ridge, lived as a nomad in Mongolia and Sumo Wrestled the heaviest Japanese human being in recorded history.

Please help me welcome CHRIS BASHINELLI!!!
