

GROW

THE NEUROSCIENCE OF GROWTH MINDSET

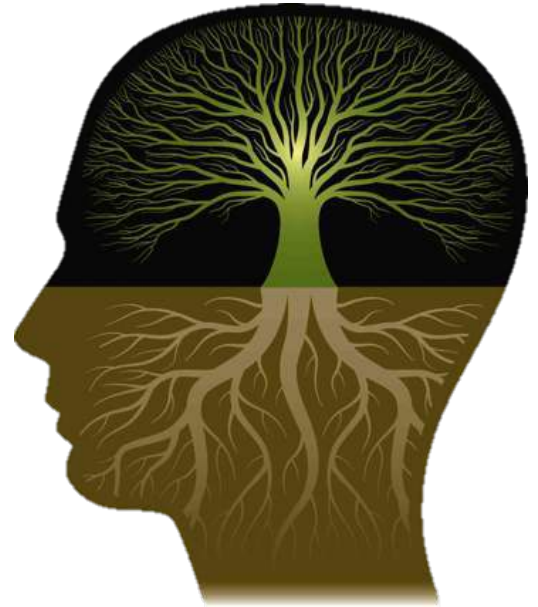

GROW is based on 25 years of scientific study on the topic of growth mindset and its impact on how we experience change and prosperity both, on an individual and corporate level.

Captivate!

International
Engage Inspire Lead

This presentation is exclusively presented by Grant Driver, CEO of Captivate International, specialists in leadership, employee engagement and high performance culture, and consultants to top global brands including Medtronic, Toyota, Coca Cola and FedEx.

GROW is a highly engaging and inspiring presentation that truly unpacks the secret to success. Using research conducted into the neuroscience of leadership, Grow includes the following key insights and take-home value:

- How the subconscious brain drives your success or failure experience.
- The “FEED” system designed by Grant Driver to positively change the neural pathways in your brain to alter you experience.
- Changing from a fixed mindset to a Growth mindset, personally and professionally.
- How to be more flexible, positive and engaged through your own perception management and emotional intelligence.
- Discover the three-key habits that encourage resilience in business and in our personal lives, and to face to change in an optimistic and pragmatic manner.
- How businesses in the 21st Century can prosper through a Growth Mindset despite the current marketplace conditions.
- Key insights into the formula for managing the customer experience and creating loyalty through experiential psychology.
